1. What is this course about?

1.1. Description

This course focuses on persuasive techniques and creative strategies that underpin effective advertising practice. Students develop and demonstrate knowledge and skills to produce an integrated advertising campaign. Students work in creative teams for about 8 weeks in this course, drawing their collective understanding of advertising theory and practice, and their respective copywriting and design skills, to create an integrated creative and interactive advertising pitch for an external client. This involves client contact, extensive group work and formal presentations to the internal and external panels/client representatives as part of a pitch process.

All - Assessment Task 2: Advertising campaign proposal

GOAL:	As a student agency team, you will bring individual and collective skills and knowledge to bear in the creation of an integrated, cost-effective, creative advertising campaign for an external client. This will be based on a clear strategy that you develop in response to the client's brief, that will include audience segmentation, the development of central creative core concept 'big idea' that embodies the strategic intent of the campaign, carefully aligned media planning, accurate budgeting and clear monitoring and evaluation strategy. With your team, you will pitch your team's full proposal and recommendations to the client in an industry-professional environment and to an industry-professional standard.
PRODUCT:	Artefact - Creative, and Written Piece
FORMAT:	Professional/Industry format. Client recommendations will be presented as: i. a professionally prepared 'plan book' or 'bid book' as a printable PDF. Print copies for submission to the client are optional. A suggested template for the format of the Plans Book will be provided. ii. Client Campaign Presentation: Final recommendations will be delivered by the team in a face-to-face presentation to their client. Online and remote students will be accommodated. Further instructions and grading information will be posted on Canvas.
CRITERIA:	No. <table> <tr> <td>1</td> <td>Demonstrate clarity, quality and persuasiveness in proposal</td> <td>2 3 4 5</td> </tr> <tr> <td>2</td> <td>Application of research to communication strategy, creative ideas and communication channels</td> <td>2 4 6</td> </tr> <tr> <td>3</td> <td>Show breadth, creativity and originality in recommendations</td> <td>4 5 6</td> </tr> <tr> <td>4</td> <td>Show ability to work collaboratively as a team</td> <td>5 6</td> </tr> <tr> <td>5</td> <td>Application of professional conventions to written and oral communication</td> <td>5</td> </tr> </table>	1	Demonstrate clarity, quality and persuasiveness in proposal	2 3 4 5	2	Application of research to communication strategy, creative ideas and communication channels	2 4 6	3	Show breadth, creativity and originality in recommendations	4 5 6	4	Show ability to work collaboratively as a team	5 6	5	Application of professional conventions to written and oral communication	5

9. How are risks managed in this course?

Health and safety risks for this course have been assessed as low. It is your responsibility to review course material, search online, discuss with lecturers and peers and understand the health and safety risks associated with your specific course of study and to familiarise yourself with the University's general health and safety principles by reviewing the online induction training for students, and following the instructions of the University staff.

10. What administrative information is relevant to this course?

10.1. Assessment: Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is the ethical standard of university participation. It ensures that students graduate as a result of proving they are competent in their discipline. This is integral in maintaining the value of academic qualifications. Each industry has expectations and standards of the skills and knowledge within that discipline and these are reflected in assessment.

Academic integrity means that you do not engage in any activity that is considered to be academic fraud; including plagiarism, collusion or outsourcing any part of any assessment item to any other person. You are expected to be honest and ethical by completing all work yourself and indicating in your work which ideas and information were developed by you and which were taken from others. You cannot provide your assessment work to others. You are also expected to provide evidence of wide and critical reading, usually by using appropriate academic references.

In order to minimise incidents of academic fraud, this course may require that some of its assessment tasks, when submitted to Canvas, are electronically checked through Turnitin. This software allows for text comparisons to be made between your submitted assessment item and all other work to which Turnitin has access.

10.2. Assessment: Additional Requirements

Eligibility for Supplementary Assessment

Your eligibility for supplementary assessment in a course is dependent of the following conditions applying:

- (a) The final mark is in the percentage range 47% to 49.4%; and
- (b) The course is graded using the Standard Grading scale

10.3. Assessment: Submission penalties

Late submissions may be penalised up to and including the following maximum percentage of the assessment task's identified value, with weekdays and weekends included in the calculation of days late:

- (a) One day: deduct 5%;
- (b) Two days: deduct 10%;
- (c) Three days: deduct 20%;
- (d) Four days: deduct 40%;
- (e) Five days: deduct 60%;
- (f) Six days: deduct 80%;
- (g) Seven days: A result of zero is awarded for the assessment task.

The following penalties will apply for a late submission for an online examination:

Less than 15 minutes: No penalty

From 15 minutes to 30 minutes: 20% penalty

More than 30 minutes: 100% penalty
