It would be assumed that you have highly developed skills in digital graphic software such as Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator and InDesign and printing procedures.

6. How am I going to be assessed?

6.1. Grading Scale

Standard Grading (GRD)

High Distinction (HD), Distinction (DN), Credit (CR), Pass (PS), Fail (FL).

6.2. Details of early feedback on progress

Early formative feedback will be provided in tutorials along with summative feedback upon submission assessments.

6.3. Assessment tasks

DELIVERY MODE	TASK NO.	ASSESSMENT PRODUCT	INDIVIDUAL OR GROUP	WEIGHTING %	WHAT IS THE DURATION / LENGTH?	WHEN SHOULD I SUBMIT?	WHERE SHOULD I SUBMIT IT?
All	1	Artefact - Creative, and Written Piece	Individual	30%	Poster + minimum 10 pages of annotated process journal	Week 5	Online Assignment Submission with plagiarism check
All	2	Artefact - Creative, and Written Piece	Individual	30%	12 postcards plus minimum 10 pages of annotated development journal	Week 9	Online Assignment Submission with plagiarism check
All	3	Artefact - Creative, and Written Piece	Individual	40%	Book cover + 500-word rationale	Exam Period	To Supervisor

All - Assessment Task 1: Creative Illustration for Persuasive Poster

GOAL:	You will create a persuasive poster to promote a behavioural change for a defined audience. This task will develop your professional illustration skills through your demonstration of management of workflow; using different design methods; and effectively responding to a design brief.
PRODUCT:	Artefact - Creative, and Written Piece
FORMAT:	Specific brief and requirements will be on Blackboard in your Task 1 folder. Your illustration should define and capture the brief requirements through: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Engaging with handcraft medium, sculpture, art, photography, digital software or a combination that strongly communicates the message of the brief.- Developing a number of concepts, mood board mapping, research and exploration. References should be included in your process journal, including references for text, inspirational or hero images, and critical and reflective analysis of your process. Requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Final PDF Illustration adhering to creative brief and technical requirements.- 500 word rational, include this on your last page of your process journal.- Minimum 10 page process journal.- Place all PDF's into a zipped folder with your name and submit into Blackboard
CRITERIA:	No.					Learning Outcome assessed
	1	Evidence of professional workflow management.
	2	Application of various design methods.
	3	Production of a professional complex illustration.
	4	Interpretation of design brief.

7. Directed study hours

A 12-unit course will have total of 150 learning hours which will include directed study hours (including online if required), self-directed learning and completion of assessable tasks. Student workload is calculated at 12.5 learning hours per one unit.

8. What resources do I need to undertake this course?

Please note: Course information, including specific information of recommended readings, learning activities, resources, weekly readings, etc. are available on the course Canvas site– Please log in as soon as possible.

8.1. Prescribed text(s) or course reader

There are no required/recommended resources for this course.

8.2. Specific requirements

You will need to bring to class the basic drawing materials required for each weeks exercise. These are listed on Blackboard in the weekly lesson folder and in the weekly planner. This course requires some commercial software or hardware which is provided at USC campuses for student use. If you elect to do this course online, you may either; attend a campus at which it is available, discuss alternative open source solutions with your course coordinator that would enable you to demonstrate the learning outcomes, or if you prefer you may acquire this software and / or hardware at your own expense.

9. How are risks managed in this course?

Risk assessments have been performed for all studio and laboratory classes and a low level of health and safety risk exists. Some risk concerns may include equipment, instruments, and tools; as well as manual handling items within the laboratory. It is your responsibility to review course material, search online, discuss with lecturers and peers and understand the risks associated with your specific course of study and to familiarise yourself with the University's general health and safety principles by reviewing the online induction training for students, and following the instructions of the University staff.

10. What administrative information is relevant to this course?

10.1. Assessment: Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is the ethical standard of university participation. It ensures that students graduate as a result of proving they are competent in their discipline. This is integral in maintaining the value of academic qualifications. Each industry has expectations and standards of the skills and knowledge within that discipline and these are reflected in assessment.

Academic integrity means that you do not engage in any activity that is considered to be academic fraud; including plagiarism, collusion or outsourcing any part of any assessment item to any other person. You are expected to be honest and ethical by completing all work yourself and indicating in your work which ideas and information were developed by you and which were taken from others. You cannot provide your assessment work to others. You are also expected to provide evidence of wide and critical reading, usually by using appropriate academic references.

In order to minimise incidents of academic fraud, this course may require that some of its assessment tasks, when submitted to Canvas, are electronically checked through Turnitin. This software allows for text comparisons to be made between your submitted assessment item and all other work to which Turnitin has access.

10.2. Assessment: Additional Requirements

Your eligibility for supplementary assessment in a course is dependent of the following conditions applying:

The final mark is in the percentage range 47% to 49.4%

The course is graded using the Standard Grading scale

You have not failed an assessment task in the course due to academic misconduct.

10.3. Assessment: Submission penalties

Late submission of assessment tasks may be penalised at the following maximum rate:

- 5% (of the assessment task's identified value) per day for the first two days from the date identified as the due date for the assessment task.

- 10% (of the assessment task's identified value) for the third day - 20% (of the assessment task's identified value) for the fourth day and subsequent days up to and including seven days from the date identified as the due date for the assessment task.

- A result of zero is awarded for an assessment task submitted after seven days from the date identified as the due date for the assessment task. Weekdays and weekends are included in the calculation of days late. To request an extension you must contact your course coordinator to negotiate an outcome.

10.4. SafeUniSC

UniSC is committed to a culture of respect and providing a safe and supportive environment for all members of our community.
