School: School of Education and Tertiary Access

2024 | Semester 2

UniSC Sunshine Coast

BLENDED LEARNING

Most of your course is on campus but you may be able to do some components of this course online.

Please go to usc.edu.au for up to date information on the teaching sessions and campuses where this course is usually offered.

1. What is this course about?

1.1. Description

This course focuses on building responsive, playful interactions and relationships with children under three. You will acquire knowledge about attachment, caregiving and play and consider your role as an educator who creates positive, safe early learning environments, and facilitates connectedness for children, families, and communities. You will create a professional development plan and identify ways to develop partnerships. Your 10 day/15 day PEx (required and negotiated) provides insights about young children and creating responsive relationships with them, their families and community.

1.2. How will this course be delivered?

ACTIVITY	HOURS	BEGINNING WEEK	FREQUENCY
BLENDED LEARNING
Learning materials – Learning materials offer options/opportunities for learner choice. You will engage and interact with an array of asynchronous materials and activities accessed through Canvas modules, course readings and required texts.	2hrs	Week 1	9 times
Tutorial/Workshop 1 – A blended learning approach is used to deliver this course, including a mix of interactive tutorials/workshops, and synchronous and asynchronous materials and activities accessed through Canvas. This course will be supported by technology-enabled learning and teaching including Zoom. Additional modalities may support learning in this course.	2hrs	Week 1	10 times
Placement – The placement is managed by the placement team. You will undertake the required 10 days* of PEx in an early years context, engaging with children (birth - under three years). You will engage at the PEx site for 7.25 hours each day. Consult the PEx calendar and course information for placement dates. *A variation/negotiation in the form of a '15 day' placement may occur for some students obtaining credit for EDU109 (Please alert the course coordinator if you have been given credit for EDU109).	72.5hrs	Week 11	Once Only

1.3. Course Topics

- Bronfenbrenner's ecological framework and theory
- Attachment theories and the importance of responsive interactions and relationships
- Play and playful interactions in the very early years
- Environmental influences on children's early learning, health and wellbeing
- The importance of childhood and valuing children for who they are right now
- Belonging, being and becoming: Exploring the vision of the Early Years Learning Framework (EYLF)

All - Assessment Task 4: Personal Reflection linked to Collaborative Folio

GOAL:	The goal of this task is to work collaboratively to gather information about a young child's development, and family and community contexts and to reflect on the role early childhood educators play in supporting children and families and developing family and community partnerships.
PRODUCT:	Portfolio
FORMAT:	* Please refer to the Canvas site for this course for more detail. * This task must receive a pass grade to enable progression to Task 5 (PEx) and to successfully complete course requirements. Working in a small group, choose one child from the ABC 'Life At' Series (use the videos available from links in the course Canvas site) and follow the physical, social and intellectual development of this child from birth to age 7. Focusing on the influence of the first three years of life and how this connects to later learning, engage in 'scholarly conversations' with your peers and discuss this child's development, characteristics, relationships and life circumstances. Taking inspiration from your textbook, Bronfenbrenner's ecological framework, attachment research, The Early Years Learning Framework (EYLF), and Quality Area 6, discuss the critical importance of the early years, the need for young children to experience health, wellbeing and safety through strong attachment relationships, playful and responsive caregiving and interactions, and supportive social and cultural contexts. As a group engage with 'information creation as a process' and collaboratively document what you have discussed. Showcase your shared understandings using a range of forms and formats. After thinking about what your group has gathered and created together, take some time to reflect on your personal learning about your educator role in terms of developing family and community partnerships, fostering inclusion, and supporting the holistic development and wellbeing of young children. Identify the observations, frameworks, theories, values, readings and research that have supported your understanding of early development and learning, health and wellbeing.
CRITERIA:	No.		Learning Outcome assessed

9. How are risks managed in this course?

Health and safety risks for this course have been assessed as low. It is your responsibility to review course material, search online, discuss with lecturers and peers and understand the health and safety risks associated with your specific course of study and to familiarise yourself with the University's general health and safety principles by reviewing the online induction training for students, and following the instructions of the University staff.

10. What administrative information is relevant to this course?

10.1. Assessment: Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is the ethical standard of university participation. It ensures that students graduate as a result of proving they are competent in their discipline. This is integral in maintaining the value of academic qualifications. Each industry has expectations and standards of the skills and knowledge within that discipline and these are reflected in assessment.

Academic integrity means that you do not engage in any activity that is considered to be academic fraud; including plagiarism, collusion or outsourcing any part of any assessment item to any other person. You are expected to be honest and ethical by completing all work yourself and indicating in your work which ideas and information were developed by you and which were taken from others. You cannot provide your assessment work to others. You are also expected to provide evidence of wide and critical reading, usually by using appropriate academic references.

In order to minimise incidents of academic fraud, this course may require that some of its assessment tasks, when submitted to Canvas, are electronically checked through Turnitin. This software allows for text comparisons to be made between your submitted assessment item and all other work to which Turnitin has access.

10.2. Assessment: Additional Requirements

Limited Graded Course:

This course will be graded as Pass in a Limited Grade Course (PU) or Fail in a Limited Grade Course (UF) as per clause 4.1.3 and 4.1.4 of the Grades and Grade Point Average (GPA) - Academic Policy.

In a course eligible to use Limited Grades, all assessment items in that course are marked on a Pass/Fail basis and all assessment tasks are required to be passed for a student to successfully complete the course. Supplementary assessment is not available in courses using Limited Grades.

10.3. Assessment: Submission penalties

You must contact your Course Coordinator and provide the required documentation if you require an extension or alternate assessment.

Refer to the Assessment: Courses and Coursework Programs – Procedures

10.4. SafeUniSC

UniSC is committed to a culture of respect and providing a safe and supportive environment for all members of our community. For immediate assistance on campus contact SafeUniSC by phone: 07 5430 1168 or using the SafeZone app. For general enquires contact the SafeUniSC team by phone 07 5456 3864 or email safe@usc.edu.au.
