1. What is this course about?

1.1. Description

This course will develop your knowledge of the Queensland Curriculum, the Senior Syllabus and pedagogy for your chosen Arts subject. The aim is to be able to engage and inspire students in their learning in this Arts subject, through your study of Arts Education theory and practices. You apply your developing knowledge of curriculum and appreciation of Arts pedagogy for Years 11 and 12 in order to design, create and deliver effective Arts programs. You reflect on and evaluate your own teaching of the Arts and observe and review your peers' teaching.

1.2. How will this course be delivered?

ACTIVITY	HOURS	BEGINNING WEEK	FREQUENCY
BLENDED LEARNING
Learning materials – You are required to engage and interact with asynchronous materials and activities accessed through Canvas modules, course readings and required texts.	2hrs	Week 1	9 times
Tutorial/Workshop 1 – You are required to attend and participate in weekly scheduled on-campus tutorials.	2hrs	Week 1	10 times

1.3. Course Topics

- Senior curriculum documents in the Arts
- Curriculum planning and alignment of content, pedagogy and assessment
- Teaching and learning strategies for engagement
- Assessment and reporting practices in the Senior Phase
- Integrating resources including ITCs into teaching the Arts
- Literacy and numeracy in the Arts

2. What level is this course?

300 Level (Graduate)

Demonstrating coherence and breadth or depth of knowledge and skills. Independent application of knowledge and skills in unfamiliar contexts. Meeting professional requirements and AQF descriptors for the degree. May require pre-requisites where discipline specific introductory or developing knowledge or skills is necessary. Normally undertaken in the third or fourth full-time study year of an undergraduate program.

3. What is the unit value of this course?

12 units

4. How does this course contribute to my learning?

All - Assessment Task 1: IA Task Student Response, Moderation and Reflection

GOAL:	The goal of this task is for you to demonstrate your capacity to critically reflect on your learning by undertaking the making of a creative artefact for an assessment, marking and moderation cycle of an Internal Assessment.
PRODUCT:	Artefact - Creative, and Written Piece
AUTHORSHIP STATEMENT:
FORMAT:	This task has four parts: Part A (formative): Adopting the role of a Year 12 student, you will create a sample response (specifically, a creative artefact) to an appropriate IA task from Unit 2 or 3 in your syllabus. Part B (formative): In the role of teacher, you will then mark your sample response using the ISMG for that Unit. Though you will only need to indicate the specific performance-level achieved, you should note down the specific features/characteristics of the response that match these descriptors. Part C (summative): In the Week 4 tutorial, you will bring your marked response and creative artefact and, with your peers: a) interrogate the marking decisions, b) engage in discussion about the purpose of the task and how it aligns to syllabus objectives, c) discuss the challenges that students may face in the completion of the task, and d) reflect upon how the experience will assist you plan in supporting your future students complete the task. Part D (summative): You will then write a critical reflection on: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. what you learned about the IA from the process of making the response</li> <li>2. what you learned from the process of reviewing your marking</li> <li>3. how your learning from this task will impact your future teaching.</li> </ol> This written piece is to include references to the syllabus, education policy frameworks, and academic literature, to demonstrate your capacity to connect your own experiences with the wider field of your discipline and education.

All - Assessment Task 2: Arts Learning Sequence

GOAL:	The goal of this task is to review and Arts TLAP, plan a consecutive sequence of Year 12 lessons in your Arts discipline and provide a rationale outlining the learning.
PRODUCT:	Plan
AUTHORSHIP STATEMENT:
FORMAT:	This task has 3 components: 1: Summative: Review of Teaching, Learning and Assessment Plan (10%)            You will use your knowledge and understanding of curriculum requirements to review and discuss in class a Teaching Learning and Assessment Plan (TLAP) from Unit 3. This review will consider the alignment with the General Senior Syllabus requirements for your discipline area, the syllabus objectives and assessment tasks in the unit. Time will be allocated during your Week 6 tutorial to complete the review template available on Canvas. This component is worth 10%, and you will be given feedback to inform your work in the Arts lesson sequence. 2 &amp; 3: Summative: Arts lesson sequence and rationale (25%)            Based on the subject matter and objectives of Unit 3, you will design a sequence of three consecutive 70-minute lessons. Your lessons must adhere to syllabus objectives and other requirements in your Arts discipline. You will indicate opportunities for formative feedback, and ensure that the lessons are aligned with and attend to the summative assessment task/s for the unit.            .Your lesson sequence should be planned so they:            - embed Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspective, using appropriate protocols for your discipline;            - meet the needs of a diverse range of learned and provide opportunities for all students to succeed through differentiation and UDL strategies;            - include meaningful links to literacy and numeracy within the plans; and            - incorporate effective and safe use of ICT relevant to the learning activities you have devised. The lessons should include explicit teaching, spacing and retrieval practices, modelling/worked examples, and scaffolding, and be based on students' familiarity with the content. You should allow ample opportunities for students to practise recall and retention, and show that independent problem-solving activities are presented only once the students approach proficiency from opportunities to practise progressively challenging tasks. You will include a range of evidence-based assessment practices to evaluate student learning, adjust instruction, provide targeted feedback and support learning, including a diagnostic assessment activity to identify students' prior knowledge so the introductory lesson can be pitched to the appropriate level before continuing the lesson sequence. Your rationale will justify the choices of pedagogy, curriculum content, assessment and resources, and should include references to the course readings, academic literature, education policy frameworks and the curriculum documents.

All - Assessment Task 3: Teaching Segment

GOAL:	The goal of this task is to teach a segment of one lesson for a Senior Arts classroom
PRODUCT:	Oral and Written Piece
AUTHORSHIP STATEMENT:
FORMAT:	You will present a 10 minute segment of one of your lessons from Task 2 in the tutorial, as if you were teaching it to Year 12 students. Show clear communication of content knowledge and teaching skills, and differentiate for diverse learning needs, using a range of pedagogical strategies including explicit teaching, sequence and retrieval, modelling/worked examples and scaffolding, providing an opportunity for students to practise recall and retention. Include in your teaching segment general capabilities including embedded ICT and numeracy and literacy skills. Include a formative assessment/ feedback component. Submit your written lesson plan (with references) to the submission point by the due date. The presentations will take place during the Week 9 and 10 tutorials. It is crucial that you attend both weeks for the entire session, to provide a "class" of students for your peers.

9. How are risks managed in this course?

Health and safety risks for this course have been assessed as low. It is your responsibility to review course material, search online, discuss with lecturers and peers and understand the health and safety risks associated with your specific course of study and to familiarise yourself with the University's general health and safety principles by reviewing the online induction training for students, and following the instructions of the University staff.

10. What administrative information is relevant to this course?

10.1. Assessment: Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is the ethical standard of university participation. It ensures that students graduate as a result of proving they are competent in their discipline. This is integral in maintaining the value of academic qualifications. Each industry has expectations and standards of the skills and knowledge within that discipline and these are reflected in assessment.

Academic integrity means that you do not engage in any activity that is considered to be academic fraud; including plagiarism, collusion or outsourcing any part of any assessment item to any other person. You are expected to be honest and ethical by completing all work yourself and indicating in your work which ideas and information were developed by you and which were taken from others. You cannot provide your assessment work to others. You are also expected to provide evidence of wide and critical reading, usually by using appropriate academic references.

In order to minimise incidents of academic fraud, this course may require that some of its assessment tasks, when submitted to Canvas, are electronically checked through Turnitin. This software allows for text comparisons to be made between your submitted assessment item and all other work to which Turnitin has access.

10.2. Assessment: Additional Requirements

Eligibility for Supplementary Assessment

Your eligibility for supplementary assessment in a course is dependent of the following conditions applying:

- (a) The final mark is in the percentage range 47% to 49.4%; and
- (b) The course is graded using the Standard Grading scale

Eligibility for Supplementary Assessment Your eligibility for supplementary assessment in a course is dependent of the following conditions applying: The final mark is in the percentage range 47% to 49.4% The course is graded using the Standard Grading scale You have not failed an assessment task in the course due to academic misconduct

10.3. Assessment: Submission penalties

Late submissions may be penalised up to and including the following maximum percentage of the assessment task's identified value, with weekdays and weekends included in the calculation of days late:

- (a) One day: deduct 5%;
- (b) Two days: deduct 10%;
- (c) Three days: deduct 20%;
- (d) Four days: deduct 40%;
- (e) Five days: deduct 60%;
- (f) Six days: deduct 80%;
- (g) Seven days: A result of zero is awarded for the assessment task.

The following penalties will apply for a late submission for an online examination:

- Less than 15 minutes: No penalty
- From 15 minutes to 30 minutes: 20% penalty
- More than 30 minutes: 100% penalty
