1. What is this course about?

1.1. Description

In this introductory course you will develop foundational nursing knowledge and skills using a person-centred approach to care. Your practice is underpinned by the National Safety and Quality Health Service Standards (NSQHSS) and Aged Care Quality Standards (ACQS) that are essential for the provision of safe quality health care. You will develop your critical thinking and problem-solving skills using a case-based learning approach in tutorials and the nursing laboratory. You will review and reflect on your learning in preparation for NUR117 Clinical Practice 1 in order to meet the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia (NMBA) Registered nurse standards for practice at a beginning level.

5. Am I eligible to enrol in this course?

Refer to the UniSC Glossary of terms for definitions of “pre-requisites, co-requisites and anti-requisites”.

5.1. Pre-requisites

NUR111, must be enrolled in SC391

5.2. Co-requisites

Not applicable

5.3. Anti-requisites

Not applicable

5.4. Specific assumed prior knowledge and skills (where applicable)

As attained in pre-requisite courses.

5.5. Microcredential Information

Not applicable

6. How am I going to be assessed?

6.1. Grading Scale

Limited Grading (PNP)

Pass (PU), Fail (UF). All assessment tasks are required to be passed for successful completion of the course.

6.2. Details of early feedback on progress

NUR116 Preparation for Practice 1 will include early assessment (not Substantial Assessment Tasks) that provides formative feedback on academic progress, including identifying the need for additional support. In week 4 of this course you will demonstrate your knowledge of assessment and develop a plan of care that will be peer reviewed in the tutorial. In week 7 of the course you will undertake a clinical based scenario that will be peer reviewed in the laboratory. The feedback provided will support guidance and understanding for your development of understanding the importance of planning care for clients.

9. How are risks managed in this course?

Risk assessments have been performed for all studio and laboratory classes and a low level of health and safety risk exists. Some risk concerns may include equipment, instruments, and tools; as well as manual handling items within the laboratory. It is your responsibility to review course material, search online, discuss with lecturers and peers and understand the risks associated with your specific course of study and to familiarise yourself with the University's general health and safety principles by reviewing the online induction training for students, and following the instructions of the University staff.

10. What administrative information is relevant to this course?

10.1. Assessment: Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is the ethical standard of university participation. It ensures that students graduate as a result of proving they are competent in their discipline. This is integral in maintaining the value of academic qualifications. Each industry has expectations and standards of the skills and knowledge within that discipline and these are reflected in assessment.

Academic integrity means that you do not engage in any activity that is considered to be academic fraud; including plagiarism, collusion or outsourcing any part of any assessment item to any other person. You are expected to be honest and ethical by completing all work yourself and indicating in your work which ideas and information were developed by you and which were taken from others. You cannot provide your assessment work to others. You are also expected to provide evidence of wide and critical reading, usually by using appropriate academic references.

In order to minimise incidents of academic fraud, this course may require that some of its assessment tasks, when submitted to Canvas, are electronically checked through Turnitin. This software allows for text comparisons to be made between your submitted assessment item and all other work to which Turnitin has access.

10.2. Assessment: Additional Requirements

This course will be graded as Pass in a Limited Grade Course (PU) or Fail in a Limited Grade Course (UF) as per clause 4.1.3 and 4.1.4 of the Grades and Grade Point Average (GPA) - Institutional Operating Policy of the USC. In a course eligible to use Limited Grades, all assessment items in that course are marked on a Pass/Fail basis and all assessment tasks are required to be passed for a student to successfully complete the course. Supplementary assessment is not available in courses using Limited Grades.

10.3. Assessment: Submission penalties

You must contact your Course Coordinator and provide the required documentation if you require an extension or alternate assessment.

10.4. Links to relevant University policy and procedures
